March is Problem Gambling Awareness Month

In March each year, the Iowa Lottery pauses to observe and highlight Problem Gambling Awareness Month and the help that is available here in Iowa for those who are struggling.

Starting this Saturday, March 1, you'll see reminders from us across the state. At the Iowa Lottery, we hope that by getting the message out, we'll provide the right information at the right time to someone who needs help.

Whether you're working at a lottery retailer, watching TV, listening to the radio, using a streaming service or going online, you'll likely see one of the public service announcements we produced along with the Iowa Department of Health and Human Services.

Remember that people with gambling disorders can come from any background – young or old, male or female, rich or poor. The universal detail for all of them is that a gambling disorder is treatable.

If you or your lottery customers have questions about problem gambling, know that help is available 24/7 in Iowa by visiting yourlifeiowa.org or calling 1-800-BETS OFF. Free and confidential help is available there through text, secure chat, email, telephone or in person.

Everyone needs help sometimes.

Celebrating the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund

The Iowa Lottery was proud to join veterans last month at the Iowa Statehouse to help spread the word about the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund (IVTF).

The lottery has raised more than $42 million for the Veterans Trust Fund since 2008, when proceeds were first directed to the cause.

The goal of the IVTF is to provide relief for Iowa veterans and their families. This can encompass a wide variety of areas, including unemployment or underemployment assistance due to service-related causes, assistance with medical and dental equipment and care, prescription drugs, counseling and substance abuse assistance, vehicle and housing repairs, and transitional housing during an emergency. While lottery proceeds are dedicated to the IVTF, decisions about requests for grants from the Trust Fund are made by the Iowa Commission of Veterans Affairs.

During the Veterans Day at the Capitol event on January 22, lottery officials met with veterans from across the state, gave away free lotto plays and awarded scratch game prize packs.
