Black Pearls Winners Aren't Rare! Meet These $50,000 Winners

A total of five Iowa Lottery players won the $50,000 top prize playing the Black Pearls scratch game in February. Two are pictured here: (from left) John Cole of Waterloo and Roger Winter of Waucoma. Also pictured is Sandra Potter of Marshalltown, who won $50,000 playing Double Payday, a combination scratch ticket and pull-tab ticket.

More winners:

- One player won $1 million playing Set For Life!
- One other player won $50,000 playing Double Payday.
- Two players won $10,000 playing Powerball.
- Twelve players won $30,000 each playing Crossword.
- Two players won $30,000 each playing Instant Cash Keno.
- Two players won $25,000 each playing Bingo Night.

It's a 'Funtastic' $200,000 Win!

A group of Fort Dodge co-workers have split a $200,000 Powerball prize. The members of the "Fort Dodge Funtastics" are all current or past employees of the Sears department store in Fort Dodge who pool their money to buy Powerball tickets together. Twelve of the 28 in the group visited lottery headquarters to claim the prize.

Trip to Town Yields Sweet $250,000 Win

A Waukon woman said she was shocked when she headed to town for sweets for her mother-in-law and came home with a $250,000 prize!

Becky Lomen said she drove into town from her dairy farm to get a piece of pie for her mother-in-law. While she was out, she picked up a Lucky Diamonds scratch ticket for herself and won the top prize!
